

Exemptions from the Wiring Rules >

This Information Bulletin was developed to inform industry, electrical contractors and electricians of the procedures to follow when applying for exemptions from the wiring rules or the Electricity Reform Act and Regulations.

Procedure

1. Requests for exemptions from the requirements of the Wiring Rules or the Electricity Reform Act and Regulations shall be forwarded in writing to the Electricity Safety Regulator, Department of Justice.
2. The Electricity Safety Regulator will give all decisions in writing.
3. In general, exemptions and relaxation to rules etc should not be considered to be a routine matter. Approval should never be assumed. Approval will be given only in special circumstances.

Note: Exemptions from the requirements of the network operator, Power and Water Corporation, in regard to servicing or metering etc, should be sought directly from Power and Water
